

Dear Students,

Any plans for March yet?

How about arguing before the European Court for Human Rights in Strasbourg?

The UCL Student Human Rights Programme is pleased to invite you to participate in the 2011 ECHR Moot Court Competition. All preliminary rounds of oral pleadings will be based on a hypothetical case, which will be different for each phase but still available in advance. Finals will be conducted in the ECHR in Strasbourg, before their Excellencies ECHR judges (names and dates tbc).

Please note that the Competition is open both to undergraduate and graduate students. To sign –up, email echrmoot@uclshrp.com indicating your name, year of study and attaching a short Resume. Take advance of this fantastic chance to argue both sides of Human Rights Law and make sure you apply until the 15th of December!

Looking forward to your applications,

Kind Regards,

UCLSHRP ECHR Moot Court Coordinator.

Artemisia Papadaki